

The Home & Garden Shows

draw more than 17,000 visitors to the Sonoma County Fairgrounds who are interested in renovating/remodeling, redecorating, looking for advice, ideas, project plans and would like to see the most innovative products available. Whether your business is exhibiting or not, you can be guaranteed a readership of 165,000+ for this section - the official guide to the most popular event of the season which includes information about the shows, exhibitors, show specials and a complete map to help readers locate exhibitors' booths.

Your ad will reach the people most likely to buy your products/services!

Sonoma County is an active home improvement market. With your ad in the Home & Garden Show sections you'll reach over 65% of the 231,691 adults who live in households that completed any home improvement project in the past year.
